

Be Healthy Maryland

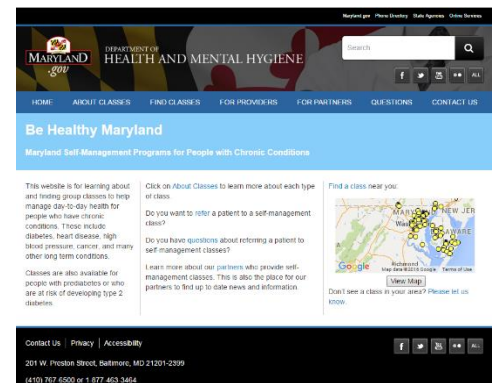

Online Tools for Referrals of Evidence-Based Programs

Evidence-Based Programs

- Diabetes Self-Management Education (DSME)
- Stanford Chronic Disease Self-Management Programs (CDSMP)
- Diabetes Prevention Programs (DPP)

Be Healthy Maryland Website

- Searchable public website for evidence-based programs
- Used by public to easily find classes close to home and self-refer
- Used by health care professionals to make referrals
- Provides information on how to become a partner and resources for current partners
- HIPAA compliant

Maryland Workshop Wizard

- Associated website for program providers to manage information
- Linked to the Be Healthy Maryland public website
- Program providers can:
 - Add their own classes
 - Track classes, participant data, and trainings
 - Monitor leader and coach certification
 - Create customized reports (i.e. CDC report for DPP)
 - Manage referrals
 - Provide feedback to referral sources
 - Manage and report DPP participant data

Website

BeHealthyMaryland.org

Questions and Access

Sue Vaeth | 410-767-8783 | sue.vaeth@Maryland.gov